Hi Lee,

Is Nelson is today? We really need an answer to this question. Jan and I are meeting with RD and other DDs at 9:30 on the status of this. Can you call him?

Hi,

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I can also set up a short meeting to discuss this as well, especially if that's easier. EFED/HED/BEAD are meeting with RD on this action again on Monday which will include

Thanks,

As this progresses, I may need to call on your knowledge again, but thanks for this as a start.

Amy,

I'm amazed at how many email were waiting for me when I got back (I figured most folks would take most of last week off, but apparently not).

Here are my responses to your questions (as near as I can recall... that's going back in time and I may not have dusted off all of the cobwebs):

Digging into the questions in the original email:

Hope that helps. Let me know if you have more questions.

Hi Nelson,

I know you are just getting back into the office after being off last week, but I wanted to get this email back on the top of your list, since this is a time sensitive issue for our team.

I know that you are off this week, but hopefully we can schedule a meeting next week to talk through our questions.
